

Funeral

Sammie

It's been three years, heard you got a man now
Heard that he works corporate, makin' a hundred thou', yeah
Heard he's all about you, he don't mess around
It pains me to hear you say
All the pain I caused was worth it
The pain I feel, I deserve it
How could I not see you was hurtin? Oh, oh, oh
Heard you got a baby on the way, slow down the pace
There's somethin' I must say

I'll let you go, no, I'll let you go, oh
Think you should know, your wedding day, on your wedding day
Will be my funeral, my funeral, my funeral
Your wedding day will be my funeral
But, baby, I'll let you go
I think you should know, yeah
Your wedding day will be my funeral, my funeral

Heard you're leaving town
To start another life without me, baby
This shit isn't real, yeah
I lurked your Instagram and I cried out loud
How could this be? Oh
You got a ring on your finger
You got a light that's inside of you, mmh
They say a man's not supposed to cry
What am I to do? Oh

I'll let you go, no, I'll let you go, mmh
I think you should know, your wedding day, on your wedding day
(On your wedding day)
Will be my funeral (I will be), my funeral (To me), my funeral
Your wedding day will be my funeral, yeah, yeah
My funeral, I'll let you go, oh
I think that you should know
Your wedding day will be my funeral
Baby, I'll let you go, uh, yeah
I think you should know, uh
Your wedding day will be my funeral, my funeral
