One Way Street

Sammie

Sammie Yeah I'm back Empire Listen

Riding round, head down, thinking what to say
Cause inside girl I know its gone come a day when I
Gone have to tell you, baby
I think that I fell out of love
Started so innocent swear to God it was
We was just trying to be homies
But it stepped up on me
Now I canOt fight it and thereOs no use to lying

She was with her friends I, I met \square em somewhere Hooked up with some friends cause I, I never go there I wanted to see her more and more, I lost control Now \square m driving down this one way street babe

I know the way IOm headed is dead wrong
But I just canOt leave her love alone
ItOs got a hold on me, taking control of me
But I don't mind, one way street babe
I can see the traffic coming head on
But I'm weaving through it like it ainOt nothing
Risking my life for your loving
Speeding down this one way street babe

Yes I love you, but when IDm with her Girl it ain't no words that I can say to explain The way that she makes me feel
Started with a kiss, a kiss became much more It hurts to hear all this I know
But IDm leaving it on the floor tonight
And I canDt fight it, thereDs no use defying

She was with her friends
I, I met \square em somewhere
Hooked up with some friends cause I, I never go there
I started to need her more and more, I lost control
Now \square m driving down this one way street babe

I know the way IDm headed is dead wrong
But I just canDt leave her love alone
ItDs got a hold on me, taking control of me
But I don't mind, one way street babe
I can see the traffic coming head on
But I'm weaving through it like it ainDt nothing
Risking my life for your loving
Speeding down this one way street babe

Risking everything for you, you
And I canOt live my life without you, you
I live to make love to you, you
IOm kissing every breath from you, you

Risking everything for you, you
And I canOt live my life without you, you
I live to make love to you, you
IOm kissing every breath from you, you

One way street babe
I know the way IDm headed is dead wrong
But I just canDt leave her love alone
ItDs got a hold on me, taking control of me
But I don't mind, one way street babe
I can see the traffic coming head on
But I'm weaving through it like it ainDt nothing
Risking my life for your loving
Speeding down this one way street babe
