

Truth Is...

Sammie

Thought I was good, thought I was over you
'Til I saw you pull up with your new boo
Hope that my mood wasn't so noticeable
He ain't got a swag like me
He ain't got a bag like me
I ain't never been the jealous type, but tonight I might be

I really hate the fact I did you wrong
I miss the days when we would get along
Ride with the top down, singin' sing-alongs
I want you right here, right now
I'm speakin' how I feel right now, right now

Baby, I still want you
Hope that you want me too
Baby, I still want you
I fight to tell the truth, truth, truth is
I just want my girl back (My girl back)
I miss the days when we would roll and we would slide, yeah
I just want my girl back (My girl back)
Since you left me, all is wrong and nothing's right, yeah
Baby, I still want you
Hope that you want me too
Baby, I still want you
I fight to tell the truth, truth, truth is (Yeah)

Truth is I get lonely (So lonely)
Truth is nothing's right (Right)
Truth is I miss my homie (My homie)
Truth is I miss my wife (My wife)
Truth is I miss my best friend
Ooh, go best friend, that's my best friend
My right hand, I'm your left hand
Put 'em together, it's a blessing (Ayy)

I really hate the fact I did you wrong
I miss the days when we would get along
Ride with the top down, singin' sing-alongs
I want you right here, right now
I'm speakin' how I feel right now, right now

Baby, I still want you (I still want you)
Hope that you want me too (Hope that you want me too)
Baby, I still want you (Baby, I still want you)
I fight to tell the truth, truth, truth is (I fight to tell the truth)
I just want my girl back (My girl back)
I miss the days when we would roll and we would slide, yeah
I just want my girl back (My girl back)
Since you left me, all is wrong and nothing's right, yeah
Baby, I still want you
Hope that you want me too (Hope that you want me too)
Baby, I still want you (Baby, I still want you)
I fight to tell the truth, truth, truth is (I fight to tell the truth, I fight to tell the truth)

Ayy
(I still want you)

Hope that you want me too
Baby, I still want you
I fight to tell the truth)
Truth is
