

Old Ways

Sammy Adams

Whippin' down the PCH
Sure you don't appreciate
All the pics I been postin'
Salty bitch I know you posted

See me runnin' on both goals
Scorin' like I got the ball between the goal posts
But no it's nothin'
I swear I keep this shit a hundred

I rep, I rep, I rep, I rep my city and my whole team
I got my hand on a blonde girl's ass like I'm hiking
Red seven harou
If you against good brains you would drop out
I get, I get, I get, I get these bitches all across us
Global smokin' heavy like a rasta
Ain't nothin' different
I say ain't nothin' different
Ain't nothin' different

Landed in a new place
In a new hood
Back to my old ways
Everything is too good
I don't even think about you anymore
About you anymore
You got a new face
Got a new life
You know it's too late
I got a new wife
Don't even think about you anymore
Don't even think about you anymore
Anymore

I been sittin' on my future
When I was with you I was so used to
Not doin' nothin'
That's just who I'm becomin'

Saw who I'm becomin' now you barkin' up the wrong tree
Tryna air out all the fuckin' dirty laundry
You picked the wrong one
And it's gon' be a long one

I rep, I rep, I rep, I rep my city and my whole team
I got my hand on a blonde girl's ass like I'm hiking
Red seven harou
If you against good brains you would drop out
Global smokin' heavy like a rasta

Landed in a new place
In a new hood

Everything is too good
About you anymore
Don't even think about you anymore
Don't even think about you anymore
Anymore

It was so nice [?]

Landed in a new place
I don't even think about you anymore
About you anymore
Don't even think about you anymore
