

Stop Feeling Sorry For Yourself

Sandie Shaw

So your little girl has told you, you're through
Well I'm gonna tell you just what you should do
First try to forget her,
Forget you ever met her

Don't sit there on the shell
Get up, stop feeling sorry for yourself today
Don't sit there on the shell
Get up, stop feeling sorry for yourself today

Leave her alone.

It does not good to keep on hanging around her door
If she has told you she don't love you anymore
It's better that she has freed you,
Face facts, she don't need you

She's probably laugh to yourself
Get up, stop feeling sorry of yourself today
She's probably laugh to yourself
Get up, stop feeling sorry of yourself today

And don't you go to places where she'll be
And well who knows, she could well miss you
And then come back with a little bit of luck

It does no good to keep on crying every night.
Then I'll never help to put your troubles right
Crying is such a bad thing,
Crying is such a sad thing.

Why not going on somebody else
Get up, stop feeling sorry for yourself today
Why not going on somebody else
Get up, stop feeling sorry for yourself today
Stop feeling sorry for yourself today
Stop feeling sorry for yourself today
