

Out Of Reach

Sanna Nielsen

Out of reach,
still I can't stop dreaming of it into deep must I feel this way for you?
All I know,
is the night won't give me answers,
and the moon is foul and then it's light I'm wishing you were by my side to hold me.

There are times, I can't go on without you
there are times, I fool myself believing you're still mine
Even if it's over but that's something bad my heart can't see cuz I still love you though you're out of reach.

I was lost in the moment that I met you had I known would have turned and walked away?
Can you love without every breaking?
Cuz I still find it hard to believe and though it's just a memory of you and me.

There are times, I can't go on without you
there are times, I fool myself believing you're still mine
Even if it's over but that's something bad my heart can't see
cuz I still love you though you're out of reach.

If I could turn that time,
I wouldn't try to change your mind Cuz maybe you were meant to teach me to be strong and go alone with hurt
and one day I'll find this encourage to move on and though you're out of reach.

And there are times, I can't go on without you there are times (my baby), I fool myself believing you're still mine
Even if it's over but that's something bad my heart can't see
Cuz I still love you though you're out of reach you're out of reach though you're out of reach.
