

This Is My Thanks

Sanna Nielsen

I will hold my head up high.
To try to see you.
There's so much I wanna say.
Above all that I miss you
And that I'm stronger than before.
Cause I'm learning to get by
But my love for you won't die.

And there isn't anyone who can tell me I'm dreaming.
Cause each night when I think about your face, is that they al l seem so real to me.
But im stronger than before, cause im learning to get by.
And my love for you won't die.

This is my thanks, for all the love you brought into my life w hen you where mine.
This is my thanks for the memories we will cherish
Now that you're gone.

All I really dream of is to hold you tight and let you know.
You will always be here with us in every single way.
But with that, no but that

All I really dream of is to hold you tight and let you know.
You will always be here with us
In every single way.
But that, oh but that.
