

Rise!

Santa Hates You

All your fears collide
You stay awake till dawn
We know it's hard to hide
When it's yourself you're fleeing from

The night is always near
The scorn is always true
How can you fool your jailer
When that jailer is you

Rise!
The night is calling

The night is calling!

In case you didn't notice
We're hungry captive animals
Locked up in our own malice
Nothing but self-cannibals

Defeated kings of dreamlessness
Behind walls of blood and veins
Brought to life by Death's caress
The stigma is what remains

Rise!
The night is calling
The night is calling!

All your fears collide
You stay awake till dawn
We know it's hard to hide
When it's yourself you're fleeing from

In case you didn't notice
We're hungry captive animals
Locked up in our own malice
Nothing but self-cannibals

Rise!
The night is calling
The night is calling!
Rise!
