King of Anything

Sara Bareilles

Keep drinking coffee, stare me down across the table While I look outside So many things I'd say if only I were able But I just keep quiet and count the cars that pass by

You've got opinions, man We're all entitled to 'em But I never asked

So let me thank you for your time And try not to waste any more of mine Get out of here fast

I hate to break it to you babe But I'm not drowning There's no one here to save

Who cares if you disagree? You are not me Who made you king of anything? So, you dare tell me who to be Who died and made you king of anything?

You sound so innocent All full of good intent Swear you know best

But you expect me to Jump up onboard with you Ride off into your delusional sunset

I'm not the one who's lost With no direction, oh But you'll never see

You're so busy making masks With my name on it in all caps You've got the talking down Just not the listening

Who cares if you disagree? You are not me Who made you king of anything? So you dare tell me who to be Who died and made you king of anything?

All my life I've tried To make everybody happy while I just hurt and hide Waiting for someone to tell me it's my turn To decide

Who cares if you disagree? You are not me Who made you king of anything? So you dare tell me who to be Who died and made you king of anything?

Who cares if you disagree? You are not me Who made you king of anything? So you dare tell me who to be Who died and made you king of anything?

Let me hold your crown, babe
