

Love

Sara Groves

Love I made it mine
I made it small I made it blind I followed hard only to find it wasn't love
it wasn't love

Love of songs and pen
oh love of movie endings takes out the break
leaves out the bend
misses love

Love not of you
love not of me
come hold us up
come set us free
not as we know it
but as it can be

Love's reality
is not a passing bravery it holds out hope beyond what's seen the hope of love

Love not of you
love not of me
come hold us up
come set us free
but as it can be
