

Something Changed

Sara Groves

Something changed inside me broke wide open all spilled out Till I had no doubt that something changed

Never would have believed it till
I felt it in my own heart
In the deepest part the healing came

And I cannot make it
And I cannot fake it
And I can't afford it
But it's mine

Something so amazing in a heart
so dark and dim
When a wall falls down and the light comes in

And I cannot make it
And I cannot fake it
And I can't afford it
But it's mine
