

Simple Like This

Sarah Blackwood

Twisted thoughts will break you down
And you'll take them to the ground
When you felt life disappear
Desperate cloudiness of fear
So close your eyes

And he won't pay no mind
No he don't pay no mind, to these tears that got me

Being nothing but so cold
Regret will burn right through your soul
Wish it had been a little later, I know
But you can't change your mind now
This you know

And he won't pay no mind
No he don't pay no mind, to these tears that got me

I hope you make your way to heaven
I'm sorry baby, baby, baby I stopped you here

So simple like this

These tears don't make it easy
With every one more sorrow falls
And no one said it would be easy
Just think of it like this

So simple like this

I hope you make your way to heaven
I'm sorry baby, baby, baby I stopped you here
I hope you make your way to heaven
I'm sorry baby, baby, baby I stopped you here
I hope you make your way to heaven
I'm sorry baby, baby, baby I stopped you here
