

Angels & Devils

Sarah Darling

You made it so easy,
You made it seem right
I was drawn to you like a lovesick fool
You had a smile like Satan, a kiss that made me
Let my guard down, by the time I turned around
There was nothing I could do
I saw the real you

Why do angels dance with devils
Take the truth and mix it up with lies
Why do good girls always go with the bad boys
What makes them want to take that lonely ride
Why do angels dance with devils

If words were a shotgun,
There'd be a hole in my heart
Yeah, it's a wicked game
And I know I never should've played

Why do angels dance with devils
Take the truth and mix it up with lies
Why do good girls always go with the bad boys
What makes them want to take that lonely ride
Why do angels dance with devils

Even though they're never gonna change
They'll take you by the hand
And know just what to say

Why do angels dance with devils
Take the truth and mix it up with lies
Why do good girls always go with the bad, bad boys
What makes them want to take that lonely ride
Why do angels, why do angels
Why do angels dance with devils

Why do angels, why do angels
Why do angels, why do angels
