

Timelapse

Sarah Darling

I'm impatient
I get tired of waiting
For something beautiful to happen
I'm just chasing
Hear the voices saying
Don't stop now

As long as there are rivers and roads
Highways in the sky to roam
Full speed I'll be flying along
And it

Feels like I'm living in a time lapse
Flashing frames going so fast
These days I don't wanna slow down
I know it's getting kind of reckless
I see it all but Heaven knows I miss
All the moments blurring as they rush past
Living in a time lapse

There's regret
People I've not been there for
And they were always there for me
And I've got somebody
Who puts me first and I'm
So hard to love, yeah so hard to love

As long as there are rivers and roads
Full speed I'll be flying along

Feels like I'm living in a time lapse
Flashing frames going so fast
These days I don't wanna slow down
I know it's getting kind of reckless
I see it all but Heaven knows I miss
All the moments blurring as they rush past
Living in a time lapse
Oh
Living in a time lapse
Oh

I'm impatient
I get tired of waiting
For something beautiful to happen

I know it's getting kind of reckless
I see it all but Heaven knows I miss
All the moments blurring as they rush past
Living in a time lapse
Oh
Living in a time lapse
Oh
Living in a time lapse
