

Shit Show

Sarah Jaffe

It's a solo set
I'm playing alone
It's an animal down to skin and bone
It's a cry for help no telephone
It's an awkward combination
Some deadbeat conversation

It's gonna be a shit show
Catch you tomorrow I gotta run home
Recent studies have shown
It's gonna be a shit show

And to some extent it feels all wrong
Like the lights are on but no ones home
All the ways it felt never could have known
This remarkable occasion mixed with devastation

It's gonna be a shit show
Catch you tomorrow I gotta run home
Recent studies have shown
It's gonna be a shit show

It's a solo set
I'm playing alone
It's an animal down to skin and bone
It's a cry for help no telephone
It's an awkward combination
Some deadbeat conversation
