

This / That

Sarah Jaffe

For a second I forgot that I could have my way
Enough of this, enough of that, the idea is a slave
To some unknown territory buried in your brain way down
Just when I think that I've had all I can take Enough of this, enough of that, it begins to take shape
See no potential in the bet if it's under the stakes way down

Breathe within, to be without
Reveal it all to me, reveal it all
I'm on the fence, I feel left out
Reveal it all to me, reveal it all

Apprehensive with every step that I take
Enough of this, enough of that, the idea is a slave
This is not gonna work so I push it away, way down
Well I'm just thinking out loud now, let me say
Enough of this, enough of that, got to have it my way
See no potential in the bet if it's under the stakes way down

Breathe within, to be without
Reveal it all to me, reveal it all
I'm on the fence, I feel left out
Reveal it all to me, reveal it all
I'm on the fence, I feel left out
Reveal it all to me, reveal it all
I'm on the fence, I feel left out
Reveal it all to me, reveal it all

Enough of this / that, this / that, this / that, oh
Enough of this / that, this / that, this / that, oh
Enough of this / that, this / that, this / that, oh
Enough of this / that, this / that, this / that, oh
Enough of, oh
Enough of, oh
