

Anything Else

Sarah Jarosz

Break the walls of my mind of fantasy
Sew the seeds of my soul
Throw the stone and then count its ripples deep
Just let it go, let it go

Tell me now, how do you paint all the works
Filling up my empty halls
Through the house I now walk with sympathy
And shadows fall, shadows fall

Like anything else
I'll see it through
Like love
Like you

Take the fall, take it all, take everything
There will be another soon
Leave me here on my own, on solid ground
I'll see it through

Like anything else
I'll see it through
Like love
Like you

Days gone by, days now here, days yet to come
Who's to tell us what to do?
Count the ways, close your eyes, see everything
I'm here with you, here with you

Like anything else
I'll see it through
Like love
Like you
