

Amen

Sarah Slean

tired of this game
tired of this race
tired of these chains
that bind me
wanna be free
free to let go
let all that is good
inspire me
and I I keep running on empty thinking maybe I'll see a sign that if I open up my heart will someone say
amen?
tired of this scene
and all that it means
no company cool
will define me
tired of this screen
staring at me
no radiant box
can confine me!
and I
I keep running on empty
thinking maybe I'll see a sign
if I open up my heart someone will say
amen
and out of the dark, the darkest night I want to follow my heart into the light so what am I waiting for?
I keep running on empty
thinking maybe I'll see a sign
and if I open up my heart someone will say
amen
