

Day One

Sarah Slean

I put my head back where it belongs
Up there in the clouds
I'm spreading love like a terrorist now

And oh what a morning
Oh what a day to be alive
Sweet hope is glowing in your glorious eyes

Pushing, baby real enough
I bet you think that you're so tough
But all you'll beat won't be nothing at all

Day One! Day One!
Day One! Day One!

After Boy Wonder,
After the dream came out of the minds
Busboys and bankers wiping their eyes

Be still my lion heart!
A revolution ready to pounce
The passionate up and out of the house

Beauty faked a heart attack
Now I feel it coming back
But all you'll beat won't be nothing at all

Day One! Day One!
Day One! Day One!
