

Set It Free

Sarah Slean

woman in present danger banking on some lost puzzle piece somebody rearrange her tell her she's got all she needs
but what do I do with my sorrow?
well if you're asking me...
set it free!
throw it into the sea
get it under your feet!
oh let go of the leash!
you gotta set it free
runnin' your poor self ragged trying to outrace these stubborn blues baby put down that baggage!
oh that story's old news
but what do I do with my sorrow?
well if you're asking me...
so what's the use?
untie the noose!
feel it, it's just a moment away!
imagine the peace
when you set it free
so please...
