

Inside your Evil Heart

Saratoga

Inside your evil heart
You Drink from my pain
Dream of destroying
Everything good that exists in my

Again the clouds come negresses
Defeat to the Sun that went out
Today thousand villages weep for his misery
Today the white city he silenced

We have begged of knees
We saw our voice mutilated
Nobody was dancing the dance ever
The storm now is a hurricane

Inside your evil heart
You Drink from my pain
Dream of destroying
Everything good that exists in my
Animal instinct
You Dictate the countdown
Calm your thirst of evil
In the hell are, they will wait

The missiles are the toothed dead
Flowers there arise on the sea
Sea of sand, weepings and ash
Sea of oblivion, sea of loneliness

The one who did drink from the wine mas bitterly?
Then it hid itself in the darkness that exists behind the visionary madman?
That hides after the tempest?

Inside your evil heart
You Drink from my pain
Dream of destroying
Everything good that exists in my
Animal instinct
You Dictate the countdown
Calm your thirst of evil
In the hell are, they will wait

(Chained to your skin)
Chained to your skin
(The devil goes)
The devil goes, he was guiding you
(Leave Him to do)
Leave Him to do, it was taking care of you
You will Realize his will

I saw victorious flags shone
Saw to re-go to the new emperor
Saw weeping for angels without roof
I saw to shout his desperation

Already not habra thousand and one in the nights
The secret garden never dried off

They fall of the sky tears of fire the soil
Trembles everything ended

Inside your evil heart
You Drink from my pain
Animal instinct
