

Days Like These

Sasha

Arguments rule today
we slug it out
tears are so common place we're drowning now

We're under a dark cloud, Baby we cannot shake it off (think) we gotta go right back to the start to make it stop

soon will end
it's gonna get better, Baby hold that thought
say a prayer
rescue will come to save it dawn will break
you will see
there will be no more days like these

We are both on defense ready for attack
always prepared to fight you watch your back

I can't remember just how far it was we fell
but we gotta try and relearn love to break this spell;.

Though I've never felt much further from the past oh, I know we'll make it through the fire at last
