

High & Low

Sasha

We love we hate
We hope we cry
Wake up, lie down
We live and die

We try so hard
To walk the line
We choose, decide
And change our minds

Why do we go high and low?
Who can tell, when no one knows
Lights and shades
They rise and fall
Good lives go high and low

We give, we heal
And sacrifice
We fake, we steal
Betray and lie

We trust, believe
Accuse and blame
Forgive, regret
And then we do it all again

Why do we go high and low?
Who can tell, when no one knows
Lights and shades
They rise and fall
Good lives go high and low

Why do we go high and low?
Why do we go high and low?

Why do we go high and low?
Who can tell, when no one knows
Lights and shades
They rise and fall
Good lives go high and low
