Satan Takes a Holiday

Let's shake hands
Let's just shake em real good
Like all good girls
And the good boys would

And let's be friends
They would call us by our names
Don't have to love it to do it
Yes we know the game

Oh believe me
We are all deceiving
And I'm not to sure
That you'll like what you'll see

My radio is off

Let's be good
Let's get off
You've got to earn it
Cause you want it
Don't you girl?

Keep your lights off
And look the other way
Just keep believing
Someone else is
Kneeling for them
Boy

Oh believe me
We are deceiving
I'm not to sure
If you know what I mean

My radio is off
