

The lonely sun sets far away
No shadow get so longer
I'm trying not to think so deep
But you i'm thinking of.

What's happened to the love we used to feel
What's happened to our emotions
I'm gonna ask you just again
Don't let me down tonight.

Jane
There's no reason to hide your face
Don't go running away
I'm losing you i'm crying too

Jane
Slowly counting the times of day
You have got to believe me
I'm losing you (i'm) crying too
I love you
I do love you.

Forgive me for the things i said
And put your hands in mine
I only want the best for you
The colours of your world

I mean it i don't wanna be alone
Without you is to die
I'm gonna ask you once again
Don't let me down tonight.

Jane
There's no reason to hide your face
Don't go running away
I'm losing you i'm crying too.

Jane
Slowly counting the times of day
You have got to believe me
I'm losing you (i'm) crying too
I love you
I do love you.
