

Shortcut

Savannah Outen

It's been a week but it feels so much longer
And knowing that you're not alone makes it harder
They say to wait as long as it takes
But you didn't wait

You're over there posting pictures beside her
And I'm still here learning how to live without ya
It's not that easy
It's hard to believe
That you're over me

Tell me is it real love
Or is she just a shortcut
Was being alone too much

That you had to find a shortcut
A shortcut

I've tried everything but there's no way around it
Except for just one but it seems like you found it
You moved on too fast without looking back
But I'm better than that

Tell me is it real love
Or is she just a shortcut
Was being alone too much
That you had to find a shortcut
A shortcut
