

Can't Stay the Same

Saves the Day

Go if you wanna go
Don't wanna lie here while you cry yourself to sleep
And say what you wanna say
Cause I can see by your face that somethings not the same

Hey, hey everything's okay
I love you more than I can say
But we can't stay the same
Yeah!

Do what you wanna do
Don't wanna keep you here holding so tight you can't breathe
And stay not a minutes stay
Cause I don't think I wanna live here dying all alone

Hey, hey everything's okay
I love you more than I can say
But we can't stay the same
Yeah!

Well I've been thinking about the words I've said before
When I was locked outside and pounding on the door
I wish I said "I'm sorry, sweetheart I can't be the man I've lead you to believe that I would be.
Somewhere deep inside I know there's something wrong
I know you're never safe around me anymore"

Well hey everything's okay
I love you more than I can say
But we can't stay the same
Yeah!

Hey, hey everything's okay
I love you more than I can say
But we can't stay the same
Yeah!
