

Turning Over in My Tomb

Saves the Day

So now I'm stuck under the boards
No room to run, not anymore
I'm left to die here all alone
Or choose to live now on my own

I reach my hand above the ground
Feel for a root to pull me out
Now there is nothing I can do
I'm turning over in my tomb
I'm turning over in my tomb

When I get my feet on the ground
I notice there ain't no one around
Everybody, go home
To hope to hide from their ghosts
But they're living all alone

The stars are finally falling down
The trees reach up from underground
I'll never be the man you want
I'll never give you what you need

The only thing I wished I'd said
I'm sorry for the things I said
Now there is nothing I can do
I'm turning over in my tomb
I'm turning over in my tomb
