

Headstrong

Saviour

You can only be headstrong
For so long

No hope
No trust
No love
They can define where the heart is but they are heartless, insincere
These motherfuckers don't think straight

No hope
No trust
No love
I can't recall where it started but they are broken, they are lost
These motherfuckers don't think straight

You can only be headstrong
For so long
Serenity is slowly forgotten
Integrity is falling apart
And it's too late

And they say what the fuck is honesty?
Who the fuck is empathy?
I'm done
I'll watch you people eat each other up
And then I'm gone

You can only be headstrong
For so long
Serenity is slowly forgotten
Integrity is falling apart
And it's too late

Burn on brighter youngblood
Let them medicate
Do not let me hesitate

No hope
No trust
No love
They can define where the heart is but they are heartless, insincere
These motherfuckers don't think straight

So let them burn
Inside the lessons they will never learn
What the fuck was I thinking?
What the fuck was I thinking?
I'll watch you people eat each other up
And then I'm gone

It's like I'm fading on my own again
It's like I'm waiting for the stars to blend
Come back and wake me
Uncage me

It's like I'm fading on my own again

Until they fucking blow up and it's all pretend
Just one less reason to hate myself

And then I'm done

You can only be headstrong
For so long

One life
Two choices
Get a fucking grip or let the moment slip
We have worth
We have voices
There is no masterplan, God damn

There is no masterplan

Fuck that
Scratch that

Dishonest
Burn it with their bodies
They are still nobodies
Sleep and neglect
They'll have to earn my respect

It's like I'm fading on my own again
Sleep and neglect
Come back and wake me
Uncage me
They'll have to earn my respect

It's like I'm fading on my own again
Come back and wake me
