

Pressure and Composure

Saviour

They can only catch us if we slow down
So take my hand cause stitches are for bitches man

We are all so capable of great things
Just incapable to believe it
Maybe we're defeated

If you don't want to go, don't go
If you want to stay lets stay
If you want to fuckin drown then drown but take me with you

Do you feel the pressure?
I need composure

They said the world was mine to conquer
Then why does it feel like it's conquering me?

We are all so capable of great things
Just incapable to believe it
Maybe we can beat it

If you want to go, lets go
If you want to run, let's run
If you want to fuckin fly away please take me with you

Do you feel the pressure?
I need composure

They said the world was mine to conquer
Then why does it feel like it's conquering me?

They can only catch us if we slow down
So take my hand cause stitches are for bitches man

A pocket full of dreams and a tank full of gas
We should getaway
We should leave today

They'll never catch us
So take my hand cause stitches are for bitches man

They said the world was mine to conquer
Then why does it feel like it's conquering me?

Why does it feel like it's conquering me?□
