

The Low in Hello

Saviour

Hey there, where's the good in goodbye
I see the low in hello (the low in hello)

Sometimes I wonder
If I'm ever on your mind
Like the way you are on mine
I hope I'm more than that
I hope I'm more than that
And I am hoping I can find
The way to rule the world today
I'd be cool with that

Hey there, where's the good in goodbye
I see the low in hello (the low in hello)
Hey there, where's the good in goodbye
I see the low in hello

I thought of you today
But the words escaped me
Like they fucking hate me

Sometimes still I wonder
If I have fed your mind
Like the way you poisoned mine
I hope I'm more than that
I hope I'm more than that
And I am hoping I can find
The way to show the world today
And I'd be cool with that
And I'd be cool with that
Leave me here
See me
On my own
Incase I let you down again

Hey there, where's good in goodbye
I see the low in hello (I see the low in hello)
Hey there, where's the good in goodbye
I see the low in hello

I thought of you today
But the words escaped me
Like they fucking hate me
I want the world today, but the words escaped me
I can fucking burn
Like they fucking hate me

I thought of you today, I thought of you today, I thought of you
But the words escaped me (But the words escaped me)
Like they fucking hate me (Like they hate me)
I want the world today, I want the world today, I want the world
But the words escaped me (But the words escaped me)
Like they fucking hate me (Like they hate me)
I thought of you today
