

The Quiet Calm

Saviour

When did my angels become my demons
Show me some gravity
Set me free forever

With my world in your palm
I am the quiet calm

Wake me
Only if you need me
I am the quiet calm
Dont remind me cause I'm more than capable of tearing myself apart

When did my angels become my demons
Show me some gravity
Set me free forever

So fuck what they say
I know it feels like everything drifted away
But they don't know you like i do
So just keep patient
Just keep calm

When did my angels become my demons
Show me some gravity
Set me free forever

I'll take the weight of the world off your shoulders
If you shatter my world

I fear the ice we tread is paper thin
I'll walk if you want to walk
I'll drown if you want to drown
I'll talk if you want to stay tonight
I'll tell you everything again
How i could of been different
And everything I left unsaid

I know it feels like everything drifted away

Leave me
I don't think you need me
I am the quiet calm
Don't remind me cause I'm more than capable of fading back to the start

When did my angels become my demons
Show me some gravity
Set me free forever
