

Violet

Saviour

Violet enslaved by the shade
Take a fucking chance
My overanxious hands can not hold you
Violet you bloom as I fade
Fuck this fake world
Timeless the day
In death and bouquet
Violet after all
My mind is lost in the motion
Inside a valley
Under the ocean
I am the hollow echo of your past
Like the patterns on your arms do I still haunt you?
And I swear that I will not be here long
Like the shiver in your voice
Unless you convince me
I swear my next attempt will be my last attempt motherfucker
Fake world convince me like there's some kind of God
Convince me like there's some kind of God
Looking down on me
Am I make believe?
Shining down
Violet after all
My mind is lost in the motion
Inside a valley
Under the ocean
So take me
Why don't you take me into a haze where I can be alone
Before I turn to stone
So take me
Why don't you take me into a haze where I can be alone?
Before I turn to stone
And lately it's me that hates me
Enter the silent vacant undertone
It turns my skin to stone
So take me
Why don't you take me?
