

Younger

Saviour

Show me the journey
Frame by frame
Let me burn in your sunlight

Love passed
Days went way too fast
I barely fucking captured it
My memory is counterfeit
Freeze my soul

I just assumed the good times would last forever
I just assumed our young love would never grow old

Show me how to live
Before we get too old
(We're torn apart)
Show me how to breathe alone
(But never broken)

Show me everything we couldn't keep from the start
When we were younger
When we were younger
And the memories we lost in the dark
Do you wonder?
Do you wonder?

Do you wonder where the love in us goes?
To another life?
Maybe to the afterlife?
Take me with you
Where the city light glows
Take me with you
Take me with you

Freeze my soul and let me bask in its glory
Before we lose another fucking page of our story
Page by page we're torn apart
I'll stay strong if you stay strong

So 3, 2, 1
Let bygones be bygones

Rest where the fight in me whispers
The memory blisters
Rest where the fight in me whispers
Let bygones be bygones

A quiet place where the fight in me whispers
Memory blisters

The subtleties upon your ageing skin
Never seemed to shade the youth within
If you overflow in afterglow
Take me with you

The subtleties upon your ageing skin
Never seemed to shade the youth within
If you overflow in afterglow
Take me with you

Show me everything we couldn't keep from the start
When we were younger
When we were younger
And the memories we lost in the dark
Do you wonder?
Do you wonder?

Do you wonder where the love in us goes?
To another life?
Maybe to the afterlife?
Take me with you
Where the city light glows
Take me with you
Take me with you

And I will hold your hand until these bones corrode to dust
And we can start again
In the next life
