

A Way Out

Saybia

What if I stay one more day
Only to see you walk away
Leaving this man for everything else

I'm trying to open up tonight
I need to know why we fight
Am I the wall we both climb?

If you walk away without a warning
If you find a way out
Way out
Way out

Cigarette's lit, and so am I?
In a room full of smoke and hidden goodbyes
With walls caving in on you and I

Why should I stay one more day?

If you walk away without a warning
If you find a way out
Way out
Way out
Yeah

You find a way out
Way out
Way out
Yeah
