

Silence As Your Friend

Saybia

Help me Im drowning I fell in a lake of depress Help me Im slipping Away from reality

But wherever you go Keep the silence as your friend

But I see your face Its torn in anger But I still keep on hiding

I see your face Its torn in anger But I hide though youre hurt

Help me Im breathing I caught me on lack of respect Help me Im dying And choking in self-pityness

But wherever you go Keep the silence as your friend

But I see your face Its torn in anger But I still keep on hiding

I see your face Its torn in anger But I hide though youre hurt

I see your face Its torn in anger But I hide though youre hurt

Its only natural to lose control Confronted with more life Its only natural to lose control When I look inside

And I see your face Its torned in anger But I hide though youre hurt

I see and Ive seen Although youre hurt I will hide

I see and Ive seen Although youre hurt I will hide
