

Sweetest Heart

SayWeCanFly

I know you're brave but sometimes it's hard for you to be.
When you're afraid of something that lives inside of me.
I know the weight is heavy and makes you bend your knees.
Are you afraid? Well sometimes it's okay for you to be.
When you're afraid. Well sometimes it's okay for you to be.
It's okay for you to be.

But my sweetheart I cannot stay, I must go
for your life is worth thousands more and I love you so.

I know it's late but sometimes it's so hard for you to sleep.
When you're awake for days and you cannot seem to be the one to stay sane but all I want to see is you okay.
Well sometimes I know you're not gonna be.
Are you okay? Well sometimes I know you're not gonna be.
I know you're not gonna be.

But my sweetheart I cannot stay, I must go.
For your life is worth thousands more and I love you.

My sweet heart, I cannot stay, I must go.
For your life is worth thousands more and I love you so.
