Detach From The Outcome

Scar Symmetry

The drug is in, invades within The third eye is opening Dimethyltryptamine and harmine Natural secretions of the mind

Ingestion, convulsion
Enlightenment, bliss

Awake I dream this joyous scene Immersed in the sacred plant It speaks the word I haven't heard Since before my birth

Everything comes alive
I hear the voice of the stars
You must detach from the outcome
I hear the voice of the earth

I reflect, just imitate
The one inside the mirror
A gentle touch, then a rush
When I step inside the glass

Colliding, dissolving Remembering, bliss

Everything comes alive
I hear the voice of the stars
You must detach from the outcome
I hear a voice everywhere

[Solo]

Colliding, dissolving Enlightenment, bliss

I hear the voice of the sun
I hear the voice of the stars
I hear the voice of the earth
I hear a voice everywhere
