

Effigy Unborn

Scar the Martyr

You are my lord of the flies
Puncture wounds, carve out the eyes
Through you live out my demise, decomposition
I wanna peel back the skin, to see the real you within Remains are all that is left, No legacy to protect
You are the brain, I'm the bride
Unchained, you're burning inside
Slither and crawl through the bile, resuscitation
Tear you apart, limb from limb
I wanna dissect the kill, to cure the sickness within Sever the sun, disconnect

I feel it slipping away
It's tearing me from the inside out
Separation of faith
I've fallen too deep now
The stench of moral decay...

I'm gonna wear your love, just like a funeral
You are my effigy unborn
I'm gonna wear your love, just like a funeral
You are my effigy unborn
I wanna wear your face, nameless to the world...
Gives every meaning to live with your words

I feel it slipping away
It's tearing me from the inside out
Separation of faith
I've fallen too deep now
The stench of moral decay...

I'm gonna wear your love, just like a funeral
You are my effigy unborn
I'm gonna wear your love, just like a funeral
You are my effigy unborn

(I wanna wear your face)
I feel as dead as yesterday in my mind
(I'm gonna wear your love)
This pre-existing compulsion forces free the guilt I cannot hide
(I wanna wear your face)
At last, alone in the sound, of screams, the shrieking surrounds
(I'm gonna wear your love)
In my insanity, the voices cover me like a shroud

An unborn effigy
Sleep in your palace of worms
The hellish imagery
An effigy unborn

An unborn effigy
Sleep in your palace of worms
The hellish imagery
An effigy unborn

I feel it slipping away
I feel it slipping away

I'm gonna wear your love, just like a funeral
You are my effigy unborn
I'm gonna wear your love, just like a funeral
You are my effigy unborn
I wanna wear your face, nameless to the world...
You are my effigy unborn
I wanna wear your face, just like a funeral
I'm gonna wear your love
You are my effigy unborn
I wanna wear your face, nameless to the world
I'm gonna wear your love
Effigy unborn
I wanna wear your face, nameless to the world
I'm gonna wear your love
Effigy unborn
