Understand Me Too

Scarlet

You call me names
You make me mad
I understand You're Feeling Bad
You knock me down when things are tough
I understand you've had it rough
And when you talk you're very rude
I understand you're in a mood
But I have to draw the line
I'm sick it's you, you, you all the time
I've said I'll be your angel, that I'll always be your girl
I'll love you for the reasons that I saw in you at first
Said I'll be your seethwart, that darling I'll be true
Now all that I am asking is that you understand me too
You bring me tears that make me sad
I understand you're feeling bad
You make me come when you want to
I know it means a lot to you
But when you turn away in bed
I understand what's in your head
But I have to draw the line
I'm sick it's you, you, you all the time
I've said I'll be your angel, that I'll always be your girl
I'll love you for the reasons that I saw in you at first
Said I'll be your seethwart, that darling I'll be true
Now all that I am asking is that you understand me too
You might think it's easy
But I am telling you
I won't take this forever
Not even from you
I understand you want me
But what more can I do?
I will only love you
If you love me too
I've said I'll be your angel, that I'll always be your girl
I'll love you for the reasons that I saw in you at first
Said I'll be your seethwart, that darling I'll be true
Now all that I am asking is that you understand me too
Now all that I am asking
Is that you understand me too
