Scars on Broadway

Insane

So many ways to hide I see the trouble deep inside

Let's go insane again Bring back the pain again Let's go insane again Bring back the pain again

Run, run baby run You'll see the things to overcome

Let's go insane again Bring back the pain again Let's go insane again Bring back the pain again

Dream, dream your broken dream You'll see the things I never see

Let's go insane again Bring back the pain again Let's go insane again Bring back the pain again

Let's go insane again Bring back the pain again Let's go insane again Bring back the pain again
