

Blood Runs Forever

Scary Kids Scaring Kids

He sees what's beneath her skin, he sees through her soul
Blue eyes and empty veins, her fortune unfolds
She steps out of her body that lies on the floor

Rise, rise from the ashes
Sink teeth into her, she becomes the cure
Blood runs forever, blood runs forever

Full moon illuminates the streets breathing fire
The dead come together to drink their desires
They march down the allies, the devil's parade
More of the turbulence that causes disaster
More of the chaos erasing the borders
More than confusion and all that she fears
The dark side is coming, the dark side is...

Rise, rise from the ashes
Sink teeth into her, she becomes the cure
Blood runs forever, blood runs forever
Blood runs forever...

She's giving it all away (She's all the way there)
She's giving it all (She is prepared)
To take her place, to follow it along
She steps into the dark tonight

Rise, rise from the ashes
Sink teeth into her, she becomes the cure
Blood runs forever, blood runs forever

Rise, rise from the ashes
Sink teeth into her, she becomes the cure
Blood runs forever, blood runs forever

Blood runs forever
Blood runs forever
Blood runs forever...
