Well the music now dies
Even within
Sleeping now hard
But never...
Now all's forgiven today

Saw her standing by her shadow
(Standing by her shadow)
Stretched across like an open road
Long enough to kill the silence
(Enough to kill the silence)
That's been keeping you here for years

And I lay my head down
I lay my head down
Forgiveness is right at the bend

I'm sure I never told you that
We're always changing
But we're still breathing

Now all's forgiven today

Saw her standing by her shadow
(Standing by her shadow)
Stretched across like an open road
Long enough to kill the silence
(Enough to kill the silence)
That's been keeping you here for years

And I lay my head down
I lay my head down
Forgiveness is right at the bend

This is the world inside my hands
This is the way you wish things were
This is the crashing of the tide
Stripping the heavens from the sky

This is the world inside my hands
This is the way you wish things were
This is the crashing of the tide
Stripping the heavens from the sky

This is the world inside my hands
This is the way you wish things were
This is the crashing of the tide
Stripping the heavens from the sky

This is the world inside my hands
This is the way you wish things were
This is the crashing of the tide
Stripping the heavens from the sky

This is the world inside my hands
(Yeah yeah yeah)
This is the way you wish things were

(Yeah yeah yeah!)
This is the crashing of the tide
(You wanted more)
Stripping the heavens from the sky
(So much more)

This is the world inside my hands
(Yeah yeah yeah!)
You wanted more
(You wanted more)
So much more
(So much more!)
Yeah yeah yeah!
(Yeah yeah yeah!)
Yeah yeah yeah!
(Yeah yeah yeah!)
You wanted more
(You wanted more)
So much more
(So much more!)
You wanted more
(You wanted more)
So much more
(So much more!)
Yeah yeah yeah!
(Yeah yeah yeah!)
Yeah yeah yeah!
(Yeah yeah yeah!)
You wanted more
(You wanted more)
So much more
(So much more!)

This is the world inside my hands
This is the way you wish things were
This is the crashing of the tide
Stripping the heavens from the sky
