

Let's Talk Trust

School Boy Humor

So trust me baby
When I say maybe
We could talk
About when we both
Believed

Burns and broke we talk for hours
About what we've learned
About what we've lost

And I know that this will break your heart
I'll go ahead
And shout it

You were in love but now you're hurting
Take my strength of vacant burning

[Chorus:]
So trust me baby
When I say maybe
We could talk
About what we both lost
You make it so hard
To realize what we had is gone (To realize what we had is gone)

Saying things that
You don't mean
It tears me
It tears me

From the edges
I will scream
Can you hear me
Are you listening

You were in love but now you're hurting
Take my strength of vacant burning
A gentle touch that's lost its meaning
Holding on I have no feeling

[Chorus]

Let's talk trust let's talk trust
Let's talk trust let's talk trust tonight (4x)

[Chorus x2]
