

Total Mash

Scream

It's a bash, one big party
It's all up front
Where you should be
It's a total mash

Let me reach out and grab your heart
There's no reason for you to stand apart
Prefab notions that hold your motions back
Cuts off your head, and tells you how to act

It's a feeling
It's why we're a band
It's just some fun
Some don't understand
It's a bash, one big party
It's all up front
Where you should be
It's a total mash

It's a feeling
It's why we're a band
It's just some fun
Some don't understand

Let me reach out and grab your heart
There's no reason for you to stand apart
