

Ram's Head

Sea Wolf

I thought I said it all and I put it upon the wall
The golden ram's head hanging just above the fireplace
The flames crackled and the wood was glowing
The flames were warm and then the wood was glowing

Yesterday is over and tomorrow nears
But I just wanna lay right here
A blanket on your shoulder as tomorrow nears
I just wanna lay right here

The weather's changing so I did some rearranging
I put the golden ram's head high above the fireplace
The flames crackle; glowing red
The wood flaming and reflecting in it's glassy eye

Yesterday is over and tomorrow nears
But I just wanna stay right here
A blanket on your shoulders as tomorrow nears
I just wanna stay right here

Ooooohhhh oh oh ohhh...
Blanket on your shoulders as tomorrow nears
Ooooohhhh oh oh ohhh...

Yesterday is over and tomorrow nears
But I just wanna stay right here
A blanket on your shoulders as tomorrow nears
But I just wanna stay right here

Ooooohhhh oh oh ohhh...
Yesterday is over and tomorrow's near
Ooooohhhh oh oh ohhh...
