

Full Moon Child

Sebastien

Night's falling with a moaning
Here come all fears, that you're hiding
Until new day's been born you're so alone

Your conscience so tortured
Your mind is led by addictions
You're kneeling down on knees with your disease

You know, what's like to burn inside
Shamelessly blowin' out guiding light

You know, how it feels to lose your mind
Daemons are runnin' free to reach your ground

When you cry in a pouring rain
All alone with the tears you're hiding
Realized, that you feel ashamed
For roads you're riding
When you cry in sleepless nights
Which your life has turned you into
Like Foul Moon Child, your soul's in chains...

Night's falling, overloaded
By things you cherished and wasted
Your soul is strong enough to keep new love...

You know, what's like to burn inside
Shamelessly blowin' out guiding light

You know, how it feels to lose your mind
Daemons are runnin' free to reach your ground

When you cry in a pouring rain
All alone with the tears you're hiding
Realized, that you feel ashamed
For roads you're riding
When you cry in sleepless nights
Which your life has turned you into
Like Foul Moon Child, your soul's in chains...
