

Last Dance At Rosslyn Chapel

Sebastien

How does it feel
Breeding the tears of tomorrow...
I feel your pain
Without the touch
Anymore...
Taking my chances so it feels like resolution...
When I'm in doubt
I feel your fears
All alone...

Memory breaks me and it kills me to the bone
There is no guardian of your love...

Why in your heart
There is no hope - no tomorrow...
I'll be your boat so you can reach
Distant shore...
Please don't refuse me
I can be your light to borrow
So I can heal your burning wounds in the war...

Please don't refuse me...
You can use me... like a sign
When you are lost in bitter tears...

How can you fall in love?
Be the guardian for the blind
Yesterday took me far away from tomorrow
How can you fall in love?
Heal the dark in twisted mind
I always find you back in my sorrow...

Master of life I hold your hand
You can take me... Don't go away
Where there's no hope - there's no shame
I make it stronger
When you lead me to the chamber of déjà vu
Without the touch of the flame...

How can you fall in love?
Be the guardian for the blind
Yesterday took me far away from tomorrow
How can you fall in love?
Heal the dark in twisted mind
I always find you back in my sorrow...
