

Sphinx In Acheron

Sebastien

I stand alone in the valley of lunacy
Diving for an answer in the dying sea

Seven Gates of Eden
Journey leads to Hell
In the lion's den like Daniel
Crying...

She's the cure for a cancer in my dying veins
She's the magical dancer who is killing pain

Life is like a garden
Where flowers never grow
And the seagulls circle low and slow

She's the light in Acheron
When the night eyes watching me
See her
Dancing high in waiting dawn
Like a brides maid symphony

Whispering are voices, inside your head
And the hope that what I'm getting ain't so bad

Seven Gates of Eden
Sexton rings the bell
With no warning the golden lion fell

She's the light in Acheron
When the night eyes watching me
See her
Dancing high in waiting dawn
Like a brides maid symphony

I'm calling you...

She's the light in Acheron
When a night flies over me
See her
She's the stone in empty crown
Like a diamond of the sea
