

Stranger at The Door

Sebastien

Still I hear the song of darkness
And the words are bittersweet
Deep in space which no one knows
Where the temple rises of magma and heat

I feel your hungry kisses
Poison fills me to the bone
Deep in space in howling wind
Where the temple
Keeping empire

Still I hear the wounded angels
River cries in silent words
Deep in space in gale and storm
Where the sky is full of the blinded birds

I know about your nightmare
When you wake up in night
And the water round your lips
Covering your body with open light

Steel fever
Sabre dance of Orion Angel
Steel fever
Feel the touch of messenger

Still I hear the song of darkness
Ringing in my busy head
No one calls you when you die
In the fire overrunning your bed

Steel fever (I deliver - inhuman fever)
Sabre dance of Orion Angel
Steel fever (I'm your tower - blood'n'power)
Feel the touch of messenger
Steel fever (I deliver - inhuman fever)
Crystal glance of Orion Angel
Steel fever (I'm your tower - blood'n'power)
In the trance of avenger

Night... is stealing my day
Black sonnets are here to stay
At endless fight

Night... with wet grisly face
Like glyphs on the ancient vase
In this moonlight

I'm holding a knife
So cold and so bright
A moment of snakebite
So sweet and so tight
It's my way to fall in love
My way
In this dreamless land

Steel fever (I deliver - inhuman fever)

Sabre dance of Orion Angel
Steel fever (I'm your tower - blood'n'power)
Feel the touch of messenger
Steel fever (I deliver - inhuman fever)
Crystal glance of Orion Angel
Steel fever (I'm your tower - blood'n'power)
In the trance of avenger
In the trance of avenger...
